

Plants help people and animals to live because:

Food chain - the grass goes into the rabbit and the rabbit goes into the fox habitat - a natural environment or home of a variety of plants and animals desert mountain ocean woodland microhabitat - a very small habitat, for example woodlice under logs

Remember

MRS GREN